Dick Barvinchak, Chuck Constable and Rick Knox listen attentively for their names while attendance is being taken.

Micki Masutani demonstrates a Japanese aspect of her oriental culture.

Exchange Here –

Micki Masutani . . . from Sakaiminato, Japan . . . introduced chopsticks and Japanese cuisine to host families . . . talented musically and athletically . . . likes pizza and blueberry pie.

Mary McKenna . . . from Melbourne, Australia . . . eldest child in family of eleven . . . visited Florida . . . was always singing "Waltzing Matilda" . . . most snow she'd ever seen . . . tearful departure.

Rick Gehr . . . visited Costa Rica . . . schoolwork—memorization . . . quickly learned not to wear shorts . . . afternoon siestas, serenading girls . . . families joining couples on dates.

No matter what the issue, Mary McKenna is ready to defend her native Australia.

The Spanish influence of Costa Rica seems to have followed Rick Gehr home as he shows the potential to become a great matador.

Students There

Marsha Jones . . . visited Bolivia . . . was serenaded on her birthday . . . diet of brains, blood sausages, tripe . . . Bolivian wedding ring . . . partying nearly every night.

Martha McPheeters . . . visiting Australia . . . chicken and dairy farms-cow cockney . . . no exams, only yearly test . . . manikin parade.

Nancy Hohl . . . visited Melbourne, Australia . . . Uni-High-uniforms . . . stayed with eleven host families . . . spent Christmas vacation on beach, swimming in Antarctic Ocean.

Marsha Jones' Bolivian llama seems proud that he was from the country in which Marsha chose to live.

Money

Matters Make Many Men Mad . . .

TO CHENANGO VALLEY

We've come a long way through our years at C.V. high,
It seems kind of funny that it's time to say good-bye,
There are some words of advice in the lines that come,
So read them carefully; they're from us—who are done.

The path that we've traveled has been both joyous and sad,
We've gone through great times and bad,
There have been trying times and times of discouragement,
Sometimes we would never have made it without encouragement.

Your school is what you make it so make it the best,
Don't litter its hallways; study for that test,
By your marks and your actions you represent your school,
Think about what you do—don't do it just to be cool.

By our little stay here—we've learned many things,
Now we are left with just memories—yearbooks and class rings.
We'll never forget the friendships—some that will never end,
Now we're out on our own—we best not pretend.

So a final farewell to great C.V. high,
We're signing yearbooks—with tears in our eyes;
The memories will be with us—probably 'til we die,
C.V. will always be remembered—although we have said good-bye.

A warm thank-you to administrators, teachers and friends for all the help and guidance they have given us. We really appreciate it.

Sincerely,
The Class of 1969
